Agitech's develops and delivers application development solutions that meet each client's specific business requirements and strategies. Our experts leverage new technologies, enhanced frameworks and mature methodologies to create applications that feature standardized processes and enable business efficiency. We adopt a partnership approach with our clients' partners, suppliers, and customers to deliver the best possible services, together. Our application development services include:

- New Application Development
- Existing Application Enhancement
- Application Consolidation
- Application Migration

Our Maintenance services are:

- Request Management
- Incident Management
- Request Processing
- Work Around Resolution
- Root Cause Analysis