

We provide IT/IS staffing services and employ technical professionals both as independent consultants and employees. Independent consultants are paid either hourly or on a project basis. All our independent consultants are incorporated. Employees are paid an annual salary which is among the most competitive in the industry today. We are currently looking to fill the following positions:

Systems Administrator - Orlando, Florida

System Admin needed with BS degree (Engineering, CS/CE, or foreign equivalent) plus five years related experience, to build, install, configure, troubleshoot, support, test and administer O/S in Solaris, Red Hat Linux, Solaris/ VERITAS Volume Manager, Sun Cluster & Apache Web server. Must be willing to relocate.

Computer Software Developer - Orlando, Florida

Provide tech leadership for design, development and support of new features. Write detailed software design documents using UML. Develop/modify data models for implementing required functionality. Develop Windows form-based, web-based and service-based applications using distributed n-tier architecture. Design, develop, and implement data layers using MS SQL & Oracle DB Server. Design, develop & deploy middle layer business components using .NET, J2EE environments.

Computer Software Analyst - Orlando, Florida

Systems implementation and programming; conduct analysis, design, development, testing, administration, configuration and implementation of software systems. Windows networks and exchange servers for control and automation of manufacturing, business and management processes. Plan, develop, test, analyze, code, debug, implement and document computer programs. Must have Bachelor's degree and minimum two years experience.

Sr. Software Engineer - Orlando, Florida

Plan, design, develop, code, test & modify computer applications software & specialized utility programs on different O/S using latest tools & technologies. Analyze user needs & develop software solutions. Develop GUI interfaces. Travel &/or relocation to various unanticipated locations throughout the US may be required.

