

Development teams need Light-weight JEE Frameworks that enable orthogonal aspects like security, transactions, management and monitoring to POJOs (Plain old Java objects) for developing enterprise applications. Lightweight Frameworks enable the ease of implementing business requirements first, simplicity, productivity, testability and object orientation